Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

Christopher Adams, complament;

James Guthrie, Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants. Samuel Byington, and Richard Walluch.

THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause A states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November, A. D. 1851, entered nto a contract with the United States government, Dec 7-3taw2wif agreeing to supply the government with five mi ion of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January. A. D 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of four thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent.
on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock assigned their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty percent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defendants, or their representatives, and the defendants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hun.

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day sed against the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the premises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Mon day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be essed by the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill or complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second Monday in May next. .
